

Via Email 7/10/2011

Hi,

I found that one of the requirements in English Requirement for initial registration of radiographer is exactly the same as the criteria of exemption which is applicants have to complete their secondary education in an English Speaking Country. If this is an exemption for those people who did not complete their secondary education in an English Speaking Country, why this is an requirement as well. This does not make any senses at all!

Regards,
T. Lam